DATE AND PLACE OF COMPETITION

The Handball competition at the XXIII Central American and Caribbean Games Barranquilla 2018 will take place between July 20 and August 1, 2018 at the School Sagrado Corazón de Jesús

EVENTS AND MEDALS

The events announced for the Handball competition at the XXIII Central American and Caribbean Games Barranquilla 2018 are:

EVENT	MEDALS TITLES
	GOLD	SILVER	BRONZE
Women's Team	1	1	1
Men's Team	1	1	1
TOTAL MEDALLAS HANDBALL	1	2	2

COMPETITION FORMAT

8 teams will participate per gender. There will be a preliminary, a semi-final and a final.

PRELIMINARY ROUND:

For the Preliminary round, teams will be divided into two (2) groups of four (4) teams each; each team will play against its group opponents.

SEMI-FINALS

The teams qualified in first and second place of each group will play as follows:

- A. Semi-final 1: Group A first place vs. Group B second place.
- B. Semi-final 2: Group A second place vs. Group B first place.

In addition, qualification matches will be played between Group A third place vs. Group B fourth place, and Group A fourth place vs. Group B third place.

FINAL ROUND:

Winners of semi-final matches will play for the gold medal and losers will play for the bronze medal.

Similarly, winners of the qualification matches will play for the 5th and 6th places and losers for the 7th and 8th places.

MATCHES:

All matches will have two periods of 30 minutes with a 10 minute half-time. Qualification points will be calculated as follows:

- A. Won match: 2 points.
- B. Tied match: 1 point.
- C. Lost match: 0 points.

QUALIFICATION ORDER:

If two or more teams have earned the same amount of points after having played their group matches, the qualification order will be decided as follows:

- A. By points between the teams at issue.
- B. Goal difference in the games played by the teams at issue.
- C. Higher number of goals in favor in the games played by the teams at issue.
- D. Should the tie continue, the decision will be made between the teams with the same amount of points, as follows:
 - 1. Difference in scored goals in all matches
 - 2. Higher number of goals scored in all matches.
- E. If qualification is still not possible, then a draw will decide the result. The official IHF representative present at the venue will hold this draw in the presence of all team representatives. If team representatives fail to be present, the IHF technical representative will choose other representatives.

Tie-breaker in the Semi-final and Final Rounds (Bronze and Gold)

1. Matches for the gold and bronze medals semi-finals and finals that end in a tie, will be defined in overtime after a five minute break. The overtime game will consist of two straight 5-minute periods with a switch in sides and a 1-minute break in between.
2. Should the game remain tied, an additional overtime period will be played after a 5-minute break. This overtime will also consist of two straight 5-minute periods with a switch in sides and a 1-minute break in between.
3. Should these overtimes not decide the game either, the winning team is decided by a penalty shootout.
4. If qualification games (3 A vs. 4 B) and (4 B vs. 3 A) and matches to decide 5th through 8th place are tied, the winning team will be decided by a penalty shootout directly.

PENALTIES

- A. Each team must choose five players who will attempt the penalty throws that will be taken alternately by the teams. The responsible Team Official will provide the referee a list of the names and numbers of the players that will throw the penalties. The five players may throw in random order.
- B. Goalkeepers may be freely selected and changed according to the team's criteria. Goalkeepers can also throw and regular players who throw penalties may be designated goalkeepers.
- C. Referees will decide which goal will be used and will flip a coin to determine the starting team.
- D. If the draw continues after the first round of penalties, five players (it may be the same 5 players or 1 to 5 players may be changed in a new list) will continue throwing penalties until a difference of one goal is reached after the same amount of throws. Teams will take turns to begin each penalty series until a one goal difference is reached.
- E. If the team throwing first fails to score a goal, the other team must score a goal to win.

F. If the team throwing first scores a goal and the other team fails, the first team wins.

G. If after the second full round of penalty throws the tie continues, the same system will continue being used until a decision is reached.

H. Players that have been disqualified, suspended or expelled, may not throw penalties.

I. Serious faults during the penalty rounds will lead to disqualification in each and every case. If a player is disqualified or injured, a substitute may be appointed.

J. The only people allowed in midfield while penalties are being thrown are the player throwing the penalty, the opposing goalkeeper, and the referees.

TEAM WITHDRAWAL

If a team withdraws from or is disqualified once the competition has started, it will not be replaced by another team. Games played by said team prior to withdrawing from the competition will not be taken into consideration for qualification.

GAME ANNULLMENT OR SUSPENSION

A. If a game is cancelled or suspended, the competition management will decide on the proper action to be taken.

B. Competition management consists of one Technical Delegate who will be assisted by the IHF Technical Delegate and by the IHF Pan American member of the Organizing and Competition Committee.

C. In the event of a suspension or removal of a player or team during the event, the regulations regarding sanctions and fines shall be applied.
